

JEAN ELIOT'S WEEKLY CHRONICLE OF CAPITAL SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Eighteen.)
sort and another were held there every day—notably the big tea on Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. Coolidge was a guest. The great wisteria vine which veils the face of the pictureque old house was a plot of bloom and its fragrant purple blossoms waved a languid welcome.

Last Year's

HATS CLEANED AND BLOCKED
Into the Newest Styles By Expert Workmanship
Acquire for yourself a new upping hat made over from last year's old one at a fraction of the cost of a new hat.
Just Received!
NEW SPRING FRAMES
IN THE LATEST SHADES AND COLORS
ALL WORK GUARANTEED
National Hat Factory
823 9th St. N. W.
L. SILVER, Proprietor
Phone Main 3624

M. Brooks & Co.
1109-1111 G Street N. W.

An Important Sale of 3,000 Pieces
Silk Underwear
$2.98 and $3.98 Values at $1.98

This represents one of the most fortunate purchases we ever made. The values are really wonderful and include Crepe de Chine and Satin Teddys, Envelope Chemise, Camisoles, Glove Silk Vests, etc.

There are a number of styles of each and all are faultlessly made and trimmed with lace and ribbon; some with rosebuds—others with embroidery.

Batiste Night-Gowns
Another remarkable value for tomorrow's shoppers. These are of excellent quality, full cut and full width. Very unusual values. $1.98

New Spring Blouses $7, $8, and $10 Values
Georgette, Taffeta and Crepe de Chine $5.98
Blouses. Hundreds of styles in White, Flesh and Colors.

Hirsh's Shoe Stores
1026-1028 7th St. N. W.

Women Who Want the Newest Styles in

Spring Footwear

Come to Hirsh's first, because new styles originate here and new arrivals come in every day.

As originators of our own styles our styles are exclusive with us. Besides the models sketched, you will find over fifty other new novelty effects, including the New Tongue Pumps and the new Saddle-Strap Oxfords.

Sizes AA to D. 2½ to 8.
$7.90

Dozens of other styles in Novelty Footwear not to be found elsewhere
Hirsh's Shoe Stores
1026-1028 Seventh St. N. W.

to the guests as they came up the steps.
Much important business was transacted during the three-day convention, but the delegates managed to find a little time for play. There were numerous luncheons, teas and dinners for individual members—Mrs. Herbert Hoover, for instance, had groups of delegates lunching with her on several occasions—and there was the big banquet on Thursday night to which most of the delegations went in a body.

Moreover, many of the women here to attend the A. C. A. convention were among the guests at the College Women's Club last night. This was a most delightful party, with a great deal of wit and wisdom packed into the brief program; and perhaps the most amusing feature was the group of original serio-comic ditties, dealing with the topics of the times, which were arranged by Mrs. Amos A. Steele and her corps of assistants. The program also included a "Club Feature" directed by Mrs. Eugene Stevens, entitled "The Gentle Jury," in which good women and true, properly impaneled by two of the women lawyers of the club, sat in judgment upon their fellowmen in the court of tomorrow. This performance reminded me of the entertaining stunt that a number of our society girls put on as part of the program of Hullo Washington, that extremely clever performance that Algonquin Greig, then of the British embassy, wrote and produced in Washington last year. Mrs. Marvin D. Rosenberry and Mrs. May Lamberton Becker were the principal speakers.

At the reception which preceded the banquet, a group of ladies, including Miss Emma Barker Turner, Mrs. James G. Cummings, Mrs. LeRoy Vernon, Mrs. Thomas Sidwell, and Mrs. Harvey Wiley acted as a committee of hospitality.

In the receiving line were: Mrs. Basil Manly, president of the club; Mrs. Coolidge, Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. J. Davis, Mrs. Caroline C. Howard, Mrs. Marvin D. Rosenberry, Mrs. May Lamberton Becker, Mrs. Karoline Klager, Mrs. Ethel Holist-Gawler, Mrs. Amos A. Steele, Mrs. John Earl Walker, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Edna L. Jackson, and Miss Marie K. Saunders.

The dining room was a very fairyland of color with bouyant balloons in radiant hues rising from the fern centerpiece on each table. The groups of young girls who seated the guests, carrying balloons, added to the picture, and the spectrum colors on the corner of the gray program booklets added a unique effect. Taking advantage of the presence of so many college women in town, the Vermont University Alumnae—Mrs. Coolidge's alma mater—threw a luncheon at Raucher on Thursday, the guests being asked "to meet Mrs. Coolidge."

One of the interesting college women who came to Washington last week to attend the A. C. A. convention is Professor Katherine Lee Bates, who has the chair of English literature at Wellesley. Professor Bates has stayed in Washington over Sunday and will be the guest of the Wellesley section of the College Women's Club tomorrow afternoon at a lecture tea at the clubhouse. A lecture tea sounds much more high-brow than a tea-dansante and no doubt it is, but the lecture part of this tea will be of special interest for Professor Bates has the gift of eloquence. She is also a poet and her lyric, "America the Beautiful," will be sung by Miss Margaret Conant. Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, a former student at Wellesley, has been invited to be the guest of honor.

Mrs. L. S. Stormstedt will be hostess of the afternoon assisted by Mrs. W. E. Burleigh, Mrs. Goodwin Price Graham, Mrs. Ernest Knebel, Mrs. Francis Nye, Mrs. Leroy Thomas, Mrs. F. B. Wright, Mrs. Margaret B. Bowring, Mrs. Martin A. Morrison, Mrs. T. A. Himmaway, Miss Alice Carey, Miss Mary Conyngton, Miss Grace B. Finney, Miss Della Sheldon Jackson, Miss Jessie C. McDonald, Miss Mary G. Riley, Miss Ellen A. Vinton, Miss Alice A. Bristol, and Miss Marie Antoinette Baup. All Wellesley women now in Washington are specially invited to be present.

EASTER BRIDE CROP
SMALL THIS SEASON.
The Easter brides were comparatively few in number, but the crop of Easter engagements was large enough to presage a goodly harvest of early summer weddings. The engagement of Miss Frances Hoar, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Gillett, to Reginald Foster, of Massachusetts, and the engagement of Mrs. Dorothy Williams McCormick, daughter of Mrs. John R. Williams, to Frederick A. Sterling, counselor of the American embassy in Paris, created, perhaps, the greatest stir, but there was no small measure of interest in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Natalie Sellers Barnes to Mark Reid Yates, and of Miss Anna Louise Kittelle to Comdr. Charles J. Moore. Miss Kittelle is a granddaughter of Admiral Sigbee.

Then, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Claire Boyle are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Claire Louise Boyle, to George Willis Halm, of Phoenix, Ariz. Miss Boyle is a sister of George LeRoy Boyle, who married Miss Margaret McChord. The Boyles are from Kansas City, but have been living in Washington for several months and will probably make their permanent home here. Miss Boyle and Mr. Halm will be married on April 26, but the details of their wedding are not yet completed.

The last week opened auspiciously with the wedding on Monday of Miss Phyllis Muriel Pulliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis Pulliam, to Lieut. William Wesley Jervey, son of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. William Weston Jervey, and drew to an equally auspicious close with the marriage yesterday of Miss Helen Blodgett to Henry Parsons Erwin, sometime of Chicago but now a resident of Washington. Miss Blodgett and Captain Erwin—everyone continues to call him captain, although he has recently resigned from the service—were married at 4 o'clock in St. John's Church and the picturesque little edifice was crowded with friends of the bride and bridegroom assembled to witness the ceremony. Spring was in the very air of the church, which was decorated with roses, apple blossoms and hydrangeas. The pillars and the gallery rails were twined with smilax and giant palms and Australian ferns basked the chancel and served as a background for feathery sprays of pink ranunculus.

BRIDE ENTERS CHURCH ON ARM OF BROTHER.
Canon George William Douglas, acting pastor of St. John's, performed the ceremony. The bride entered the church arm of her brother, Delos A. Blodgett, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Mich., who gave her in marriage. She had her sister, Miss Mona Blodgett, as maid of honor, and her cousin, Miss Morris Forcher, of Cocoa, Fla., was one of the four bridesmaids. The others were Miss Pauline Gates, of Plainfield, N. J.; Miss Dorothy Anderson, of St. Paul, Minn.; and Miss Madeleine Austin, of Washington.

Maj. David St. Pierre Gallard served as best man for Captain Erwin and the groomsmen were John Temple Graves, Jr., Robert C. Watson, Capt. Edwin H. Cahill, and John M. Delbert. The group of ushers who helped with the seating of the guests included Col. James L. Walsh, U. S. A., who married the bride's cousin, Miss Madeleine Forcher, and Captain Erwin's brother, Delos A. Blodgett, Jr. Erwin, of Chicago, O. R. Erwin, a cousin of the bridegroom, James Roland Lowe, and Robert V. Fleming.

The bridesmaids' gowns, which were Miss Blodgett's gift to her attendants, were fashioned of rose silk shot with gold. They were made with quaint, tight-fitting bodices and the skirts were looped up in modified puffed effect to show underskirts of shaded georgette, in which rose color and the yellow of the ophelia rose were blended. The blue, yellow, lavender and pale green, and the same shades were repeated in the wee garlands of French flowers with which the gowns were ornamented. The girls wore shepherds hats of rose and gold georgette trimmed with two-toned ribbon which held in place by wreaths of the wee satin flowers. They carried long staves to which were fastened graceful baskets of Ward roses, delphinium and lilies of the valley.

MISS BLODGETT WORE HANDSOME GOWN.
Miss Mona Blodgett's frock was of blue and silver shot silk combined with orchid tones and white. The lines similar to the bridesmaids' costumes. Her hat was also of blue and silver and a basket of orchids topped off her staff.

The bride wore a robe gown of rose point lace, a product of the looms of Belgium. It was simply made-to-have trimmed such lace would have been worse than gliding the lily—white with a circle of orange blossoms on each hip which the fullness of the skirt was held in. The robe was made over a slip of ivory satin and was girdled with pearls. Lovely old rose point lace, an heirloom in the family, which reached its flower in pattern, was used to form the train, and this was mounted on ivory satin. Miss Blodgett wore a tulle veil, falling from a coronet of point lace and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Blodgett in Sixteenth street. Mrs. Blodgett stood with the bride party to greet the guests, the fullness of gray chiffon and lace, the pattern of which was run with steel beads. Gray and orchid were mingled in the underskirt, and the hat worn with this becoming costume was rosetted with gray georgette and steel beads and trimmed with pearls. Mrs. Blodgett's sister, Mrs. Charles Matthews, was also gowned in gray, but her costume was trimmed with blue and her hat had a garniture of alights.

HOUSE BEAUTIFULLY TRIMMED WITH ROSES.
Quantities of American Beauty roses were used throughout the house and in the breakfast room, where the table for the bride party was placed, the color scheme was white. An orchestra played during the afternoon and the reception wound up with dancing.

Captain Erwin and his bride slipped away last evening for an extended wedding trip—several months at least—and their plans for the future are not yet made. It is possible, however, that they will make their home in Washington. Mrs. Erwin is traveling in a three-piece costume of midnight blue, a silk and wool mixture, embroidered in tan, with a smart hat of tan straw trimmed with embroidered flowers.

Mrs. Blodgett entertained a house party all last week, and every day there were two or three parties for this much feted bride. Mr. and Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Jr., arrived early in the week from Grand Rapids. The bridesmaids included Mrs. Blodgett's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Forcher, of Florida; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Peck, of Mobile, Ala., and their son, Albert H. Peck.

Miss Blodgett's half brother, John W. Blodgett, of Grand Rapids, with Mrs. Blodgett; and her half sister, Mrs. Edward Lowe, of Grand Rapids, with Mr. Lowe and their son, James Roland Lowe, were married at 4 o'clock in St. John's Church and the picturesque little edifice was crowded with friends of the bride and bridegroom assembled to witness the ceremony. Spring was in the very air of the church, which was decorated with roses, apple blossoms and hydrangeas. The pillars and the gallery rails were twined with smilax and giant palms and Australian ferns basked the chancel and served as a background for feathery sprays of pink ranunculus.

There was a ball every night last week—if one counts Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock's dance for her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., last evening—and on one or two evenings there were two or three dances. On Easter Monday night the Dixie ball, given by the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., had the right of way, and on this occasion General Pershing was the guest of honor. The next evening a group of army officers, who have been giving merry little dances at Raucher's during the season "repeated" this time with the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks as honor guests. And on Wednesday night there was the Army and Navy League's annual Easter ball, for which the entire army and navy contingent in Washington always turns out.

The last of the Junior League's "small and earlier," on Friday night, had opposition from the "navy ball"—given by the navy and marine officers on duty here at the Willard; and on that evening, too, there was an army dance at 2400 Sixteenth street in General Pershing's honor. Mrs. Fahnestock's dance last night was small but very smart—some 150 guests, including the army and navy contingent, and it followed the Stokes' dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. The dinner guests were the Belgian Ambassador and Mrs. de Cartier, the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leslie Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Welles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mrs. Chandler Anderson, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Hauge, Miss Gladys Hinchley, Prince de Bearn, Gen. Charles McCawley, Mr. Cardenas, Mr. Amodeo, of the Spanish embassy; Mrs. Yon, who will give a reception as a singer, will give a number of Chinese love songs in the original.

Measures Marcia and Carletta, the former an astrologer and the latter a psychic reader, will give exhibitions of Eastern magic. Mr. Wang, a Chinese magician, also will show some of the Chinese "black magic."

There will be several orchestras. Conspicuous among the orchestras will be a Chinese jazz band which will grind out weird versions to American ragtime selections.

The ushers will be Maj. A. B. Johnston, Johannes Plum, Mr. J. Lagerberg, George Sloan, Arthur Bradley Campbell, Jefferson Patterson, Prince Eugene Lubomirski, Maj. Stuart Cramer, McCormack Goodyear, M. D. Peterson, Count de Salas, Arthur Tencken, Robert Stead, Mr. Hanning, Paymaster E. J. Alexander, Lt. William Doeller, Maj. Raymond Lee, Senior Hector Ayerza and Sterret Gittings.

RUSSIA COMES TO HER OWN.
From China this week, society will turn next week to Russia. For the benefit of the hundreds of thousands of Russian refugees, driven from their native land by the Bolsheviks, tableaux vivants will be given at the Russian embassy Thursday evening, April 14, and Friday evening, April 15. The tableaux are a feature of the program of entertainments planned for April 12 to 15 by the American Central Committee for Russian Relief of which Mrs. Robert Lansing is permanent chairman and Mrs. Sherman Miles is vice chairman.

Albert Sterner, the noted artist who will direct the tableaux, came from New York to Washington last week.

AMOS W. McDEVITT
Ship Covers, $3.95
(Cost of Labor Only.)
For Any 3-Piece Suite
providing materials are purchased here.
Estimates Furnished.
Main 3211. 1015 9th St. N. W.

M. Pasternak
The Connecticut Avenue Shop
1209 Conn. Ave. N. W.

A Selected
Presentation of Lovely Dinner and Afternoon
Dresses

Specially Priced at $65

Distinctive and eminently lovely—the very frocks for Women and Misses who want the new style note in their costumes of occasion. Beautifully made, with little niceties of finish of the finer models.

Model Hats
Specially Priced
$15 and $18

Breezy creations, so different and charming. Now at these special prices.

Miss Blodgett's half brother, John W. Blodgett, of Grand Rapids, with Mrs. Blodgett; and her half sister, Mrs. Edward Lowe, of Grand Rapids, with Mr. Lowe and their son, James Roland Lowe, were married at 4 o'clock in St. John's Church and the picturesque little edifice was crowded with friends of the bride and bridegroom assembled to witness the ceremony. Spring was in the very air of the church, which was decorated with roses, apple blossoms and hydrangeas. The pillars and the gallery rails were twined with smilax and giant palms and Australian ferns basked the chancel and served as a background for feathery sprays of pink ranunculus.

There was a ball every night last week—if one counts Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock's dance for her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., last evening—and on one or two evenings there were two or three dances. On Easter Monday night the Dixie ball, given by the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., had the right of way, and on this occasion General Pershing was the guest of honor. The next evening a group of army officers, who have been giving merry little dances at Raucher's during the season "repeated" this time with the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks as honor guests. And on Wednesday night there was the Army and Navy League's annual Easter ball, for which the entire army and navy contingent in Washington always turns out.

The last of the Junior League's "small and earlier," on Friday night, had opposition from the "navy ball"—given by the navy and marine officers on duty here at the Willard; and on that evening, too, there was an army dance at 2400 Sixteenth street in General Pershing's honor. Mrs. Fahnestock's dance last night was small but very smart—some 150 guests, including the army and navy contingent, and it followed the Stokes' dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. The dinner guests were the Belgian Ambassador and Mrs. de Cartier, the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leslie Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Welles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mrs. Chandler Anderson, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Hauge, Miss Gladys Hinchley, Prince de Bearn, Gen. Charles McCawley, Mr. Cardenas, Mr. Amodeo, of the Spanish embassy; Mrs. Yon, who will give a reception as a singer, will give a number of Chinese love songs in the original.

Measures Marcia and Carletta, the former an astrologer and the latter a psychic reader, will give exhibitions of Eastern magic. Mr. Wang, a Chinese magician, also will show some of the Chinese "black magic."

There will be several orchestras. Conspicuous among the orchestras will be a Chinese jazz band which will grind out weird versions to American ragtime selections.

The ushers will be Maj. A. B. Johnston, Johannes Plum, Mr. J. Lagerberg, George Sloan, Arthur Bradley Campbell, Jefferson Patterson, Prince Eugene Lubomirski, Maj. Stuart Cramer, McCormack Goodyear, M. D. Peterson, Count de Salas, Arthur Tencken, Robert Stead, Mr. Hanning, Paymaster E. J. Alexander, Lt. William Doeller, Maj. Raymond Lee, Senior Hector Ayerza and Sterret Gittings.

RUSSIA COMES TO HER OWN.
From China this week, society will turn next week to Russia. For the benefit of the hundreds of thousands of Russian refugees, driven from their native land by the Bolsheviks, tableaux vivants will be given at the Russian embassy Thursday evening, April 14, and Friday evening, April 15. The tableaux are a feature of the program of entertainments planned for April 12 to 15 by the American Central Committee for Russian Relief of which Mrs. Robert Lansing is permanent chairman and Mrs. Sherman Miles is vice chairman.

Albert Sterner, the noted artist who will direct the tableaux, came from New York to Washington last week.

AMOS W. McDEVITT
Ship Covers, $3.95
(Cost of Labor Only.)
For Any 3-Piece Suite
providing materials are purchased here.
Estimates Furnished.
Main 3211. 1015 9th St. N. W.

M. Pasternak
The Connecticut Avenue Shop
1209 Conn. Ave. N. W.

A Selected
Presentation of Lovely Dinner and Afternoon
Dresses

Specially Priced at $65

Distinctive and eminently lovely—the very frocks for Women and Misses who want the new style note in their costumes of occasion. Beautifully made, with little niceties of finish of the finer models.

Model Hats
Specially Priced
$15 and $18

Breezy creations, so different and charming. Now at these special prices.

ELITE HAT SHOP
Announces
Spring and Summer Models in Tailored and Dress Hats

At Very Moderate Prices
REMODELING
Bring in your last season's band box, we will remodel the contents into smart individual HATS.

Expert Work in Ostrich Feathers, Paradise
and Goura
1101 14th St. N. W.
Corner L. St. Tel. Frank. 7707

Miss Blodgett's half brother, John W. Blodgett, of Grand Rapids, with Mrs. Blodgett; and her half sister, Mrs. Edward Lowe, of Grand Rapids, with Mr. Lowe and their son, James Roland Lowe, were married at 4 o'clock in St. John's Church and the picturesque little edifice was crowded with friends of the bride and bridegroom assembled to witness the ceremony. Spring was in the very air of the church, which was decorated with roses, apple blossoms and hydrangeas. The pillars and the gallery rails were twined with smilax and giant palms and Australian ferns basked the chancel and served as a background for feathery sprays of pink ranunculus.

There was a ball every night last week—if one counts Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock's dance for her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., last evening—and on one or two evenings there were two or three dances. On Easter Monday night the Dixie ball, given by the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., had the right of way, and on this occasion General Pershing was the guest of honor. The next evening a group of army officers, who have been giving merry little dances at Raucher's during the season "repeated" this time with the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks as honor guests. And on Wednesday night there was the Army and Navy League's annual Easter ball, for which the entire army and navy contingent in Washington always turns out.

The last of the Junior League's "small and earlier," on Friday night, had opposition from the "navy ball"—given by the navy and marine officers on duty here at the Willard; and on that evening, too, there was an army dance at 2400 Sixteenth street in General Pershing's honor. Mrs. Fahnestock's dance last night was small but very smart—some 150 guests, including the army and navy contingent, and it followed the Stokes' dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. The dinner guests were the Belgian Ambassador and Mrs. de Cartier, the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leslie Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Welles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mrs. Chandler Anderson, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Hauge, Miss Gladys Hinchley, Prince de Bearn, Gen. Charles McCawley, Mr. Cardenas, Mr. Amodeo, of the Spanish embassy; Mrs. Yon, who will give a reception as a singer, will give a number of Chinese love songs in the original.

Measures Marcia and Carletta, the former an astrologer and the latter a psychic reader, will give exhibitions of Eastern magic. Mr. Wang, a Chinese magician, also will show some of the Chinese "black magic."

There will be several orchestras. Conspicuous among the orchestras will be a Chinese jazz band which will grind out weird versions to American ragtime selections.

The ushers will be Maj. A. B. Johnston, Johannes Plum, Mr. J. Lagerberg, George Sloan, Arthur Bradley Campbell, Jefferson Patterson, Prince Eugene Lubomirski, Maj. Stuart Cramer, McCormack Goodyear, M. D. Peterson, Count de Salas, Arthur Tencken, Robert Stead, Mr. Hanning, Paymaster E. J. Alexander, Lt. William Doeller, Maj. Raymond Lee, Senior Hector Ayerza and Sterret Gittings.

RUSSIA COMES TO HER OWN.
From China this week, society will turn next week to Russia. For the benefit of the hundreds of thousands of Russian refugees, driven from their native land by the Bolsheviks, tableaux vivants will be given at the Russian embassy Thursday evening, April 14, and Friday evening, April 15. The tableaux are a feature of the program of entertainments planned for April 12 to 15 by the American Central Committee for Russian Relief of which Mrs. Robert Lansing is permanent chairman and Mrs. Sherman Miles is vice chairman.

Albert Sterner, the noted artist who will direct the tableaux, came from New York to Washington last week.

AMOS W. McDEVITT
Ship Covers, $3.95
(Cost of Labor Only.)
For Any 3-Piece Suite
providing materials are purchased here.
Estimates Furnished.
Main 3211. 1015 9th St. N. W.

M. Pasternak
The Connecticut Avenue Shop
1209 Conn. Ave. N. W.

A Selected
Presentation of Lovely Dinner and Afternoon
Dresses

Specially Priced at $65

Distinctive and eminently lovely—the very frocks for Women and Misses who want the new style note in their costumes of occasion. Beautifully made, with little niceties of finish of the finer models.

Model Hats
Specially Priced
$15 and $18

Breezy creations, so different and charming. Now at these special prices.

ELITE HAT SHOP
Announces
Spring and Summer Models in Tailored and Dress Hats

At Very Moderate Prices
REMODELING
Bring in your last season's band box, we will remodel the contents into smart individual HATS.

Expert Work in Ostrich Feathers, Paradise
and Goura
1101 14th St. N. W.
Corner L. St. Tel. Frank. 7707

Miss Blodgett's half brother, John W. Blodgett, of Grand Rapids, with Mrs. Blodgett; and her half sister, Mrs. Edward Lowe, of Grand Rapids, with Mr. Lowe and their son, James Roland Lowe, were married at 4 o'clock in St. John's Church and the picturesque little edifice was crowded with friends of the bride and bridegroom assembled to witness the ceremony. Spring was in the very air of the church, which was decorated with roses, apple blossoms and hydrangeas. The pillars and the gallery rails were twined with smilax and giant palms and Australian ferns basked the chancel and served as a background for feathery sprays of pink ranunculus.

There was a ball every night last week—if one counts Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock's dance for her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., last evening—and on one or two evenings there were two or three dances. On Easter Monday night the Dixie ball, given by the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., had the right of way, and on this occasion General Pershing was the guest of honor. The next evening a group of army officers, who have been giving merry little dances at Raucher's during the season "repeated" this time with the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks as honor guests. And on Wednesday night there was the Army and Navy League's annual Easter ball, for which the entire army and navy contingent in Washington always turns out.

The last of the Junior League's "small and earlier," on Friday night, had opposition from the "navy ball"—given by the navy and marine officers on duty here at the Willard; and on that evening, too, there was an army dance at 2400 Sixteenth street in General Pershing's honor. Mrs. Fahnestock's dance last night was small but very smart—some 150 guests, including the army and navy contingent, and it followed the Stokes' dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. The dinner guests were the Belgian Ambassador and Mrs. de Cartier, the Brazilian Ambassador, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leslie Craigie, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Welles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mrs. Chandler Anderson, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Hauge, Miss Gladys Hinchley, Prince de Bearn, Gen. Charles McCawley, Mr. Cardenas, Mr. Amodeo, of the Spanish embassy; Mrs. Yon, who will give a reception as a singer, will give a number of Chinese love songs in the original.

Measures Marcia and Carletta, the former an astrologer and the latter a psychic reader, will give exhibitions of Eastern magic. Mr. Wang, a Chinese magician, also will show some of the Chinese "black magic."

There will be several orchestras. Conspicuous among the orchestras will be a Chinese jazz band which will grind out weird versions to American ragtime selections.

The ushers will be Maj. A. B. Johnston, Johannes Plum, Mr. J. Lagerberg, George Sloan, Arthur Bradley Campbell, Jefferson Patterson, Prince Eugene Lubomirski, Maj. Stuart Cramer, McCormack Goodyear, M. D. Peterson, Count de Salas, Arthur Tencken, Robert Stead, Mr. Hanning, Paymaster E. J. Alexander, Lt. William Doeller, Maj. Raymond Lee, Senior Hector Ayerza and Sterret Gittings.

RUSSIA COMES TO HER OWN.
From China this week, society will turn next week to Russia. For the benefit of the hundreds of thousands of Russian refugees, driven from their native land by the Bolsheviks, tableaux vivants will be given at the Russian embassy Thursday evening, April 14, and Friday evening, April 15. The tableaux are a feature of the program of entertainments planned for April 12 to 15 by the American Central Committee for Russian Relief of which Mrs. Robert Lansing is permanent chairman and Mrs. Sherman Miles is vice chairman.

Albert Sterner, the noted artist who will direct the tableaux, came from New York to Washington last week.

AMOS W. McDEVITT
Ship Covers, $3.95
(Cost of Labor Only.)
For Any 3-Piece Suite
providing materials are purchased here.
Estimates Furnished.
Main 3211. 1015 9th St. N. W.

M. Pasternak
The Connecticut Avenue Shop
1209 Conn. Ave. N. W.

A Selected
Presentation of Lovely Dinner and Afternoon
Dresses

Specially Priced at $65

Distinctive and eminently lovely—the very frocks for Women and Misses who want the new style note in their costumes of occasion. Beautifully made, with little niceties of finish of the finer models.

Model Hats
Specially Priced
$15 and $18

Breezy creations, so different and charming. Now at these special prices.

ELITE HAT SHOP
Announces
Spring and Summer Models in Tailored and Dress Hats

At Very Moderate Prices
REMODELING
Bring in your last season's band box, we will remodel the contents into smart individual HATS.

Expert Work in Ostrich Feathers, Paradise
and Goura
1101 14th St. N. W.
Corner L. St. Tel. Frank. 7707

Stansbury Sisters For Beauty Try Our ANGELUS TREATMENTS
1220 G Street N. W.
Franklin 7783
Appointments After 6 P. M.

Why Rent When You Can Buy
House and Garage
Complete $894
See Inside Back Cover Magazine Section

MARINELLO
"A Beauty Aid for Every Need"

Face and scalp treatment, shampooing, muscle stropping, face bleaching, hair dyeing.

Permanent $1
Waving
(Frederick Machine)

Superfluous Hair
Delicately Removed by the